

Cypress after 5

We are pleased to announce the following dates for the 2011 season of the Cypress after 5 concert series.

Friday, January 28, 2011 – The Embers

We are warming up January with music from one of the South's premiere beach bands ... 30 years together, 15 albums, 300 concert dates a year and hits like, "I Love Beach Music"

Friday, February 18, 2011 – The Swing Time Orchestra

Leader, Jon Miller is a trombonist, musician and retired director of Navy bands. Winner of the prestigious George Howard Citation of Musical Excellence award. Jon has performed in musicals and composed, directed and produced his own CD's and multiple entertainment productions.

Friday, March 11, 2011 – Marlena Smalls and the Hallelujah Singers

Be ready to be entertained and inspired about the Gullah culture from the group that has performed worldwide, including for the Queen of England and The Kennedy Center. She has worked with Glenn Close, Tom Hanks and Demi Moore. She played Bubba's mother in the movie Forrest Gump. Ms. Smalls has performed on the Today Show, Good Morning America and the Crook and Chase Show.

Friday, April 29, 2011 – The Headliners

Always a favorite – our most requested band returns for an encore performance

Purchase your tickets by December 15, 2010 and you will receive your tickets at a reduced rate of $120.00 for the entire series package. (1 ticket for all four concerts)

After December 15, 2010 the ticket cost will be $140.00 for the series package.

Please fill out the enclosed ticket form and return to: Scherrie Cogdill, Cypress Foundation, P.O. Box 550, Manning, SC 29102. Tickets may be purchased at the Zone or the Cypress Foundation office located in the Cypress Center.
